CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS BAHL

Prayer in the present Criminal Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India is for issuance of a writ in the nature of habeas corpus to release the detenues (as mentioned in para 4 of this petition), who are illegally detained by respondent Nos.4 to 6, who are stated to be the brick kiln owners.

It has been averred in the petition that the petitioner along-with his family members were contacted by respondent Nos.4 to 6 to work in their brick kiln and it was agreed that amount of Rs.170/- per thousand would be paid to the petitioner and his family members. It is further submitted that respondent Nos.4 to 6 stopped paying the money and started forcibly taking work from the petitioner and his family members and the petitioner was able to escape from the brick kiln at night on 09.11.2021. However, the six persons mentioned in paragraph 4 of the petition are still in illegal detention of respondent Nos.4 to 7 and are being given merciless beatings and are not even permitted to move out of the said premises and the same is in violation of the provisions of the Bonded Labour (Abolition) Act, 1976 (hereinafter to be referred as “the Act of 1976”) and in this regard, the petitioner has given a representation dated 10.11.2021 (Annexure P-1) to respondent No.2-District Magistrate, Sonapat, Haryana.

It has been held by this Court in “Murti versus The State of Punjab and others”, LPA No. 32 of 2013, as under:-

“It may be mentioned here that the allegations of the appellant in the writ petition are that the alleged detenues mentioned in para No.3 of the writ petition who are working as labourers at the brick kiln of respondent Nos.4 & 5 are being kept as bonded labours. There can indeed be no doubt that if a labourer has been detained as bonded labour, it amounts to an offence under Sections 16 & 17 of the Bonded Labour (Abolition) Act, 1976. We, however, clarify that the aforesaid observation does not mean that the allegations levelled by the appellant have been accepted. Suffice it to observe that under the Act, the District Magistrate is under statutory obligation to hold a fact finding enquiry as and when a complaint alleging violation of the provisions of Bonded Labour (Abolition) Act, 1976 is received. Since the appellant in the instant case has specifically averred that the persons mentioned in para No.3 of the writ petition have been detained as bonded labourers, we allow this appeal and set aside/modify the order dated 9.1.2013 passed by the learned Single Judge to the extent that the petitioner's writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the District Magistrate, Sangrur, to treat this writ petition as a complaint under the 1976 Act and take immediate action in accordance with law, within a period of one week from the date of receiving a certified copy of this order alongwith a copy of the writ petition.”

Accordingly, the present Criminal Writ Petition is disposed of with direction to District Magistrate, Sonapat, Haryana-respondent No.2 to treat this petition as a complaint under the Act of 1976 and take immediate action in accordance with law, within a period of one week from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order alongwith copy of the writ petition.
