

110

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-126-2021
Date of Decision: 08.04.2021

Shallu Devi

..... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUDIP AHLUWALIA

Present : Mr. Deepak Goyal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

SUDIP AHLUWALIA, J. (ORAL)

Ld. Counsel for the petitioner with reference to the previous order dated 12.01.2021 in all fairness submits that the earlier marriage of the petitioner with one Shubh Kumar had been dissolved only by way of a Panchayati Compromise and not by way of any legal Decree passed by a Court of law, even though her ex-husband had already re-married some other lady prior to that.

2. This being the position, this Court is unable to grant any further indulgence to the petitioner, since in any case even assuming that respondent No.6 had held out the promise of marrying her before entering into physical relationship with her, as she claims, still there was no question of any lawful marriage being performed between the parties. Suffice it to say, the process of law or for that matter even this Court cannot be used as an instrument for making the parties to go through any such ceremony, which in the eyes of law does not constitute a valid marriage.

- 3. No merits.
- 4. Dismissed.

08.04.2021
Apurva

(SUDIP AHLUWALIA)
JUDGE

- 1. Whether speaking/reasoned: Yes/No
- 2. Whether reportable: Yes/No