SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (ORAL)

1. Since, the complaint carried in Annexure P-1 remains inactioned on the part of the police authorities concerned, thereupon, the petitioner is led to access this Court, making a direction upon the respondents concerned for action being taken thereon.
2. However, even if there being on the part of the authorities concerned, to galvanize the police machinery action on Annexure P-1, yet the afore in action, can be better remedy through the petitioner's accessing the learned Magistrate concerned, with an application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C., before the learned Magistrate concerned, the reason being that with the availability of the afore alternative remedy to the petitioner. The petition for the afore relief is mis-constituted, and, also is not maintainable at this stage before this Court.
3. Therefore, the petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to access the learned Magistrate concerned with a petition under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C., and, upon its representation before him, the latter shall make, orders thereon in accordance with law.
