PRESENT Mr. Ram Karan Agnihotri, Advocate, for the petitioners.

JASGURPREET SINGH PURI, J. (ORAL)

The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking direction to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of respondents No. 4 to 6.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that petitioner No.2 is already married with one Randeer Bhagat and there is five years old child from the wedlock. The aforesaid child is also impleaded herein as petitioner No.3 through her mother. Learned counsel for the petitioners has also submitted that the husband of petitioner No.2 had left and abandoned her for number of years and has not returned back and she is now residing in a live-in-relationship with petitioner No.1. However, the private respondents, who are father and brothers of petitioner No.1 are objecting to the aforesaid relationship and there is an active threat to the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of respondents No. 4 to 6.

Notice of motion.

On the asking of the Court, Mr. Munish Sharma, AAG, Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of respondents No.1 to 3.

Since the prayer made in the present petition is pertaining only to the protection of life and liberty of the petitioners, this petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2, i.e. Superintendent of Police, Karnal to look into the threat perception of the petitioners and in case so required then to take further necessary steps in accordance with law.

It is made clear that the directions issued herein are pertaining only for the purpose of protection of life and liberty of the petitioners and does not in any way reflect anything on any other subject matter whatsoever.

Disposed of.
