H. S. Madaan, J. (Oral)

Petitioner – Smt. Rekha, has filed the instant civil writ petition against respondent -Takshila Vidyapeeth through its President M.P. Majra, Beri, Jhajjar, craving for issuance of a direction to the respondent to pay the arrears of salary to her.

According to her she had served a legal notice dated 20.9.2021 upon the respondent, copy Annexure P-9, before filing of the present writ petition, but that did not evoke any response, as such she was constrained to file the present writ petition.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioner, taking into consideration the nature of dispute and in order to enable the respondent to apply its mind to the grievances of the petitioner and to avoid unnecessary litigation, the present writ petition is disposed of directing the respondent to consider the Legal Notice dated 20.9.2021, (Annexure P-9), served by the petitioner, as per law, rules, regulations and instructions on the subject and if some action in the matter is warranted, then the needful be done in accordance with law, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of copy of this order. It is further observed, that if the arrears of salary are payable by the respondent to the petitioner, as craved in the Legal Notice, the same be released expeditiously. While dealing with the notice, if the respondent does not agree with the contentions in the Legal Notice, then a speaking order in that regard be passed, copy of which be sent to the petitioner as per registered AD Post.

It is observed that in case the petitioner still feels dissatisfied after disposal of her Legal Notice, then she may approach the Court again in accordance with law for redressal of her grievances.
