It has been contended on behalf of the State that since the second respondent is under 18 years of age, as such, the petition is not maintainable. Learned State counsel further submits that on the complaint of her father, an FIR has been registered and the police officials are unable to trace the petitioners

As per the contents of the petition itself, age of second petitioner is mentioned as 16 years 10 months.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that they are still apprehending threat to their life from the hands of private respondents.

Given above, on account of minority of second respondent, though the petition is not maintainable in its present form, but since the petitioners are apprehending threat to their life and liberty from the hands of private respondents, as and when the police officials are able to trace the petitioners, they shall be protected from the alleged respondents No.4 to 9
