Civil Revision No.3022 of 2021
Date of decision:01.12.2021

Bhanu Thapar

...Petitioner

Versus

Sushma Thapar

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Vishal Aggarwal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

The hearing of the case was held through video conferencing on account of restricted functioning of the Courts.

The petitioner is a defendant in a suit for declaration, filed by the plaintiff that he is owner in possession of the suit property. The petitioner contested the suit for a period of 6 years. Thereafter, he filed an application for permission to amend the written statement in order to assert that he has perfected his title by the way of adverse possession.

The learned trial Court on appreciation of the material available on the file has held that not only the amendment sought is belated but is clearly an afterthought and it will result in prejudice to the plaintiff.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, no ground to interfere in exercise of, supervisory jurisdiction, under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
