

CWP No.24654 of 2021

Date of Decision :03.12.2021

Mandeep Singh and others

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

....Respondents

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice B.S. WaliaPresent : Mr. Pardeep Kumar Kapila, Advocate for the petitioners.

B.S. Walia, J. (Oral)

[1] Prayer in the petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, is for the issuance of a writ, order or direction, especially in the nature of Mandamus, directing the respondents to grant seniority to the petitioners as per merit in the batch, to fix their pay as also to grant arrears of salary allowances and notional consequential benefits along with interest in terms of the decision of this Court in CWP No.18051 of 2020.

[2] At the outset, learned counsel contends that the petitioners have served representation/legal notice (Annexure P/5) dated 01.09.2021, on respondent No.2, but no decision has been taken in respect thereto till date, therefore, in the circumstances, the petitioners would be satisfied, if the writ petition is disposed of by directing respondent No.2 to consider and decide the claim made in representation/legal notice (Annexure P/5) dated 01.09.2021, in accordance with law, in a time bound manner.

[3] Notice of motion to respondent No.2 only.

[4] Ms. Anju Sharma Kaushik, learned DAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.2 and on perusal of the writ petition states that she has no objection to the limited prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioners.

[5] I have considered the submissions of learned counsel for the parties, gone over the paper book and in view of the nature of orders proposed to be passed, no reply is necessary. Accordingly, in the light of the position noted above, as well as statement of learned counsel for the parties but without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the writ petition is disposed of by directing respondent No.2 to consider and decide the claim made in representation/legal notice (Annexure P/5) dated 01.09.2021, in accordance with law after taking into account all aspects of the matter within 04 months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.
