Instant appeal has been filed by the appellants seeking enhancement of the compensation awarded by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Ambala vide its award dated 27.10.2017, to the tune of Rs.16,65,072/- along with interest @ 7.5 % p.a. from the date of filing of the claim petition till realization.

It has been brought to the notice of this Bench that the matter has been amicably settled. Statements of both the parties/counsel have been recorded separately which is taken on record as mark 'A' and 'B', respectively.

A perusal of the statements would show that the appellants as well as respondent-Insurance Company have amicably settled the matter by stating that an amount of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only) over and above the amount already awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Ambala will be paid as full and final settlement by the Insurance Company to the appellants.

Learned counsel appearing for respondent-Insurance company has further stated that the said amount would be paid by the Insurance Company to the appellants (as apportioned by the Tribunal, as agreed) within a period of 45 days from today, failing which interest @ 9% p.a. shall follow from the date of the settlement before the Lok Adalat till the date of payment.

It is further stated that a cheque amounting to Rs.1,00,000/- in the name of the appellant No.1 will be deposited with the office of the Lok Adalat on or before 25.01.2022, failing which interest @ 9% p.a. shall accrue on the said amount from the date of this order, till its realization.

Learned counsel appearing for respondent No.3 states that in view of the settlement in the main appeal, Cross Objections bearing No.102-CII-2021 do not survive and the subject matter thereof be deemed to be settled along with the main appeal in the same terms.

In view of the above, we are of the considered opinion that the settlement is genuine and bona fide and in the best interest of the litigating parties.

Accordingly, instant appeal is disposed of as having been amicably settled. The settlement shall be treated as part and parcel of the award and the impugned award passed by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Amabla stands modified as indicated above. The parties will be bound by the said settlement.

The concerned officer of the Lok Adalat Branch/Office shall issue proper receipt after receiving the Cheque/Demand Draft to learned counsel for the respondent-Insurance Company. The appellants' counsel/appellant(s) may collect the cheque from the office of the Lok Adalat.

As the main appeal has been disposed of, no separate order needs to be passed in the pending application(s), if any.
