JAISHREE THAKUR J. (ORAL)

1. This is a petition that has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking protection of her life and liberty at the hands of respondent No.3 by contending that she has deserted company of her husband on account of physical abuse and demand for dowry and has already filed a divorce petition. She has apprehension of her life and liberty at the hands of respondent No.3, who is her husband and in this regard, she has submitted a representation (Annexure P-2) to respondent No.2 but no action has been taken so far.

2. Notice of motion to the official respondents.

3. Mr. Gurmeet Singh, AAG, Haryana who is present through the medium of Video Conferencing, accepts notice for the official respondents and submits that the official respondents will look into the matter and will take a decision on the representation of the petitioner. Counsel for the petitioner is directed to supply sufficient number of copies of the paper book to the counsel appearing for the State during the course of day, if not supplied already.

4. In view of the above, I dispose of the instant petition by directing the official respondents to take a decision on the representation (Annexure P-2) of the petitioner within a period of one month from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, in accordance with law.
