ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The learned trial Court has refused to strike off the defence on the ground that the defendants have already filed their written statement. The petitioner filed an application to strike off the defence of the defendant and pronounce a judgment in accordance with Order 8 Rule 1 CPC. The trial Court, after noticing that the written statement has already been filed, dismissed the application.

In the considered view of the Court, the learned trial Court has correctly exercised its discretion.

Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
