

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

129

CRWP No. 12191 of 2021

Date of Decision: December 23, 2021

Shingara Singh

....Petitioner

VERSUS

State of Punjab and others

....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE G. S. SANDHAWALIA
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS SURI

Present: Mr. Nandan Jindal, Advocate for the petitioner.

G.S. SANDHAWALIA, J(Oral).

Present petition has been preferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for extension of emergency parole for treatment of the wife of petitioner Sukhjinder Kaur. The ground taken is that the doctors are unable to perform the surgery of his wife on account of their strike and therefore, extension is prayed for.

Perusal of the paper book would go on to show that earlier this benefit was granted in Criminal Writ Petition No. 10575 of 2021 vide order dated 13.12.2021, whereby the petitioner was to surrender on 26.12.2021 by 5.00 p.m.

In the considered opinion of this Court, firstly an application would lie in the aforesaid petition and no separate petition is required to be filed as no order as such has been challenged. Secondly, the extension cannot be granted at this stage as no date has been fixed for the surgery of wife of the petitioner and therefore, it is open to the petitioner to file an appropriate application as and when the said date is fixed, before the appropriate Court/authority.

Needless to say that petitioner is required to surrender in the concerned Jail on 26.12.2021.

The petition stands disposed of with the above said observations.
