SUVIR SEHGAL, J. (Oral)

Instant petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus, directing official respondents No.2 to 4 to ensure that fundamental right of the petitioner as enshrined in Article 21 of the Constitution is not infringed and a direction be issued to the said respondents to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner from the hands of private respondents No. 5 to 11.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that the marriage of the petitioner was solemnized with respondent No.5 on 11.12.2009, however, due to constant harassment and physical assault by respondent No.5, the relations between them were estranged. Counsel submits that two children were born out of the wedlock and the petitioner was turned out of the matrimonial home. He submits that despite earnest efforts, no reconciliation could be brought about between them. Counsel submits that as the petitioner did not get any support from her parents, she started residing in a rental accommodation and submitted representations to the official respondents seeking protection of her life and liberty, which have not been attended to. Counsel submits that the petitioner would be satisfied, if in case a direction is issued to the concerned official respondent to examine their representations.

After considering the request made by the counsel for the petitioner, but without examining upon the allegations levelled in the petition or in the representation, instant petition is disposed of with a direction to the Superintendent of Police, Jind, respondent No.2, to examine the representation dated 27.12.2021, Annexure P-2, and take suitable action thereon as warranted in accordance with law.

A copy of the order as well as representation, Annexure P-2, be sent to the respondent No.2 to enable him to do the needful expeditiously.
