The instant petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C., for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.94 dated 06.08.2019 under Sections 406, 498A and 34 IPC, registered at Police Station Women, Gurugram.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and pursuant to the direction of this Court, he has joined the investigation. It is contended that the matter stands compromised before the Mediation and Conciliation Center of this Court vide settlement dated 03.9.2021, available on record.

Learned State counsel, on instructions, would submit that petitioner has joined the investigation and is not required for any custodial investigation and that the matter has been investigated.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused settlement deed dated 03.09.2021 arrived at between the parties to the marriage before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court. Consequent to the fact that the matter has been settled, the quashing petition has already been filed based on the said compromise. The matter has been investigated and petitioner has joined the investigation. Without commenting on the merits of the case, the petition is allowed and order dated 06.12.2019 granting interim bail to the petitioner is made absolute subject to the conditions laid down in Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Counsel for the parties submit that the parties would be bound by the settlement.

Ordered accordingly.
