Present : Mr. Prateek Rathee, Advocate

SUDIP AHLUWALIA, J. (ORAL)

Present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing the impugned order dated 31.05.2019 passed by the Superintendent of Jail, Central Jail-1, Hisar, vide which the Superintendent has refused to consider the application of the petitioner seeking release of her husband on parole for conjugal rights and procreation.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the prayer in this petition was for release on parole in enforcing conjugal rights of the petitioner qua her husband who was in custody. He has, however, since been released on parole in pursuance to the orders passed by the HPC following the Covid-19 pandemic on account of which the present petition has been rendered infructuous.

In view of the aforesaid submission, present petition is disposed off, as having been rendered infructuous.
