(Through Video Conferencing)

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the parties agree that during the pendency of the present writ petition, the disputes between the petitioner and the respondents have been resolved amicably by entering into a settlement/compromise, a copy of which has been placed on record as Annexure C-1.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the said settlement/compromise, which has been entered into between the parties, the grievance of the petitioner stands redressed and he has instructions not to press the present writ petition any further and the same may be disposed of as such.

In view of the above, the present writ petition is disposed of, having not been pressed any further keeping in view the settlement/compromise entered into between the parties.

Pending application(s), if any, is rendered infructuous, in view of the order passed hereinbefore.

It is made clear that the respective parties will adhere to the terms of the said settlement/compromise in its letter and spirit without any fail and in case of the failure by any party, the aggrieved party will be free to avail the appropriate remedy for the redressal of the grievance.
