This is an application for disposing of the main writ petition as infructuous in view of the office signal dated 25.11.2021, vide which the transfer of the petitioner has been cancelled.

Notice in the application.

Mr. Nikhil Anand, Advocate, accepts notice on behalf of the non-applicant/petitioner and submits that he has no objection, if the present application is allowed.

For the reasons mentioned in the application and in view of the no objection given by the counsel for the petitioner, the application is allowed as prayed for. Accordingly, hearing of the main petition is preponed and the same is taken up today itself for final hearing.

Main Case

This is a petition filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of a writ, specially in the nature of certiorari, quashing the signal dated 24.10.2018 (Annexure P-3), qua the petitioner, wherein the petitioner has been directed to be posted at 227 Battalion in Chattisgarh and further quashing of signal dated 22.11.2018 (Annexure P-6), through which the request of the petitioner for posting at nearby location has been rejected, with a further prayer to issue a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to transfer the petitioner to any nearby area/office in Delhi.

Learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that the transfer order of the petitioner has since been withdrawn. Hence, the present petition has been rendered infructuous.

This factual aspect has not been disputed by the counsel for the petitioner.

In view of the above, the present petition is dismissed as having been rendered as infructuous.

All pending miscellaneous applications are also disposed of as such.
