learned Single Judge on 10th December, 2020 and was made returnable on 25th January, 2021. It appears that the appellant (original petitioner) wants the court to decide the writ petition on the very first date of hearing and grant the relief sought.

3. Looking to the facts of the case, the appellant (original petitioner) is aggrieved by the action of respondent Nos.1 and 2 in not providing 10% reservation to the EWS category for admission to the three year LL.B Course, for the Academic Session 2020-2021 as per the mandate of Office Memorandum dated 17.01.2019 issued by Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, Government of India and O.M. dated 18.01.2019 issued by UGC. Looking at the issue involved in the writ petition and the relief sought, the learned Single Judge thought it fit to issue notice and make it returnable on 25th January, 2021.

4. No rights and liabilities of the appellant herein have been adjudicated or finalized by the impugned order dated 10th December, 2020 and the writ petition is still pending. We therefore see no reason to entertain this Letters Patent Appeal and the same is accordingly dismissed.
