ORAL ORDER

APP for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 342, 323, 307, 324/ 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and the informant alleges that while he was coming back home on his vehicle and when he reached near the house of Rajnandan Singh, all the accused persons including the petitioner intercepted him and it is alleged that petitioner assaulted the informant by Hasuli causing injury on his head and again assaulted him causing injury on his back.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is next submitted that the F.I.R. does not disclose any reason or motive behind the occurrence. It is next submitted that no occurrence take place without any reason, but since F.I.R. is completely silent in that respect, which creates suspicion. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposes the anticipatory bail application, but is not able to rebut the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner and there is delay in instituting the F.I.R. and injuries suffered by the informant is simple as is evident from Annexure-2 to the anticipatory bail application.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner, above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, is directed to be released on bail on his furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Court below where
