CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SANJEEV PRAKASH SHARMA

ORAL ORDER

2      13-09-2022                      1. Admittedly the petitioner has preferred an appeal against the impugned order of termination dated 30.11.2016 which is pending before the District Appellate Authority, Muzaffarpur.

2. Learned counsel submits that on account of the authority remaining non-functional for a long time, he has preferred this writ petition.

3. This court vide Judgement dated 23.02.2022, passed in C.W.J.C. No. 5489 of 2020 (Suresh Ram Vs. The State of Bihar & Ors.) has held that the respondents are required to make all the district appellate authorities functional and assurance was also given to this court that the District Appellate Authority will become functional by the end of August.

4. However, later on, it has been pointed out that the selection process has taken a little bit more time but in any event it is expected to make them functional soon. Keeping in view above, this writ petition is disposed of with observation that as soon as the authorities becomes functional, the petitioner's appeal shall be taken and preferably it will be disposed of within a period of six months.
