ORAL ORDER

3 23-02-2022 The learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to remove all the defects pointed out by the office within one month.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Civil Line P.S. Case No. 175 of 2018 registered for offence punishable under sections 420 and 379 of the Indian Penal Code.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that co-accused Rahul Kumar was drawee of the alleged fake cheque and in his confessional statement, the name of the present petitioner has been figured. He has further submitted that the alleged cheque was not deposited in the account of the present petitioner.

The co-accused Rahul Kumar has furnished his self inculpatory confessional statement and has stated that the present petitioner has given him Rs. 10,000/- and also provided his Aadhar Card, thereafter, the petitioner went to the branch of Canara Bank and opened the account. The complicity of the present petitioner is also emerging in the confessional statement of co-accused Rahul Kumar. As such, it is not a fit case for anticipatory bail. Accordingly, it is rejected.

Office shall ensure that all defects are removed by the petitioners within the stipulated time mentioned hereinabove, failing which, the matter shall be brought to the notice of this Court.
