ORAL ORDER

2 16-06-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioner apprehending his arrest in connection with Samastipur Town P.S. Case no. 157 of 2021 instituted for the offence punishable under Sections 272 and 273 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 30(a) of the Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act, 2016.

Prosecution case relates to recovery of 12.750 litres
IMFL from the shop of the petitioner.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. Petitioner has no knowledge regarding keeping of the liquor in his shop. On the day of the alleged occurrence, he was at Jammu to visit Maa Vaishno Devi with his family.

Learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer of bail and submitted petitioner is a habitual offender and two more cases are pending against him under the excise act .

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration that the alleged shop belongs to the petitioner, from where recovery of illegal liquor has been made, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner and, as such, his application for bail is rejected.
