ORAL ORDER

3 22-06-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

Petitioner seeks regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Section 304B/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegedly, this petitioner and other accused persons killed the informant's daughter by hanging on account of their demand of dowry was not fulfilled by the deceased.

The main submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioner are that earlier this petitioner filed Cr. Misc. no. 67564 of 2019 for the said relief which was rejected vide order dated 18.2.2020 and thereafter, again he filed Cr. Misc. no. 31128 of 2021 which was also rejected vide order dated 28.7.2021 with observation that trial of the petitioner to be concluded within a period of six months and the petitioner was given liberty to renew his prayer for bail, if his trial is not concluded within the stipulated period. Further submission is that petitioner has been languishing in jail for the last three years and his trial is still pending and six witnesses have been examined and three witnesses examined at the trial have not supported the allegation made in the FIR.

Learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer for bail.

In view of the above submissions as well as considering the petitioner's custody period and the fact that trial of the petitioner has not been concluded despite direction given by this court for concluding his trial and according to above submissions, six witnesses have been examined, in my view, lenient approach may be taken in respect of the petitioner, let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Additional Sessions Judge V, Munger in Sessions trial no. 96/2020 arising out of Naya Ram Nagar P.S. Case No. 285 of 2018.
