CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY
ORAL ORDER

3 09-11-2022 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had come before this Court for revocation of his suspension which was done by the authority without having any power to do so. He further submits that now his suspension stands revoked as so far as this writ petition is concerned, it has become infructuous. However, he may be given liberty to act against the particular individual, if the petitioner so desire, in view of the fact that the official was not having the authority to suspend him.

In view of the submissions put forward by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the writ petition stands disposed of.

It goes without saying that the petitioner has always liberty to take steps in accordance with law.
