CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

4      06-12-2022                      Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 149, 341, 342, 325, 307, 379 of the Indian Penal Code.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and the informant alleges that he was assaulted by the accused persons including the petitioner and the petitioner assaulted him by an iron rod causing injury on his head.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is next submitted that during the course of investigation, the witnesses have stated that all the accused persons have assaulted the informant, but informant has falsely implicated the petitioner by specifically alleging against the petitioner.

The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposes the anticipatory bail application and submits that there is direct and specific allegation against this petitioner of assaulting the informant on his vital part of the body i.e. head by an iron rod causing grievous injury as it has come in the injury report.

Considering the submissions made by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor that the injury is grievous and is on vital part of the body which was dangerous to life, as such, the Court is not inclined to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, his prayer for anticipatory bail stands rejected.
