CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 08-02-2022 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in connection with Jagdishpur P.S. Case No. 20/2020 instituted for the offences under Sections 302, 201 and 34

of the Indian Penal Code.

In this case, case diary was called for and the petitioner was granted provisional bail by order dated

10.01.2022 by taking into account that the implication of the petitioner was only on the ground that he had made attempts to sell the consignment which was loaded on the truck belonging to the deceased. The consignment was of refined oil.

While granting provisional bail to the petitioner, this Court also took note of the fact that the deceased was carrying on his business in the State of Jharkhand but his dead body was found somewhere in the State of Bihar and that the accusation against the petitioner was based only on confession of two arrested accused persons. The petitioner actually, at the relevant time, was employed with a person by the name of Santosh Kumar Thakur who claims to have owned the truck.

The case diary has since been received.

There is no other fact collected during the course of investigation which would be contrary to the tentative findings of the Court on reading the F.I.R. and other materials.

Considering the afore-noted facts, the provisional bail granted to the petitioner, is hereby confirmed.

The petitioner shall remain on the same bail bonds.

The application stands allowed.
