CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

2 30-11-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

Petitioner, in the present case, is seeking a direction commanding the respondents to provide protection to the life of the petitioner and her family members, in fact the petitioner is looking for assistance by administration through use of force to take possession of the property which she claims to be her ancestral property.

It appears that the parties are already fighting a title partition suit bearing No. 92/2012 which is still pending in the court of learned Sub-Judge, Gaya.

Under these circumstances, this Court would not enter into the dispute between the parties and prima-facie the whole relief clusters around the adjudication of the rights of the petitioner, therefore, no relief may be granted at this stage.

This Writ Application is dismissed. Dismissal of the writ application would, however, not come in the way of the petitioner in seeking appropriate remedy before appropriate forum in accordance with law.
