ORAL ORDER

3 25-01-2022 This matter has been taken up for hearing online because of COVID-19 pandemic restrictions.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP
for the State.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is expected to honour his undertaking to remove the defects as pointed out by the office when called upon to do so by the office.

The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioner apprehending his arrest in connection with Complaint Case no C64 of 2016 instituted for the offence under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

As per allegation in the FIR, petitioner along with his family members have tortured in various ways due to non-fulfillment dowry demand and finally they ousted her after snatching her belongings.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners has submitted that petitioner is husband of the complainant and has been falsely implicated in this case. He has never demanded any thing from the complainant. It is further contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that he is willing to lead the conjugal life with opposite party no. 2 by keeping her with full honour and dignity.

Learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer of bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner wants to keep his wife with full honour and dignity, this Court is inclined to enlarge him on bail. The petitioner is directed to surrender in the Court below within a period of four weeks from today and in the event of his arrest or surrender in connection with Complaint Case no. C-64 of 2016 he will be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Kishanganj subject to the conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
