CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHANDRA SHEKHAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 12-07-2022 Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

Let the defect(s), if any, be removed within a period of four weeks from today.

The petitioner seeks bail in connection with Vaishali
P.S. Case No. 336 of 2021 registered for the offence under Sections 364, 406, 302, 201 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code.

The accused/petitioner is named in the F.I.R. and is in custody since 31.12.2021.

The allegation against the petitioner is to commit murder of brother-in-law of the informant along with other co-accused persons.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that allegation is against the petitioner is very much general and omnibus in nature and he was implicated in the present on mere suspicion. It has further been submitted that nothing incriminating surfaced during course of investigation, which may connect the petitioner with the present set of occurrence. It has further been submitted that during course of investigation, number of witnesses including father of the victim/deceased recorded statement under Section 161 or 164 Cr.P.C. that his son left the house for and did not return his house. It has further been submitted that the petitioner is a lady. While concluding the argument, it has been submitted that similarly situated co-accused person has already been granted bail by one of the learned co-ordinate Bench of this Court through Cr. Misc. No. 269 of 2022 dated 25.04.2022 .

Learned APP, while opposing the prayer of bail, fairly conceded the fact that allegation is very much general and omnibus against the petitioner.

Considering the facts and circumstances as mentioned above, as the father of the victim stated during course of investigation that the victim/deceased son left the house for job coupled with the fact that charge-sheet has already been submitted in this case, let the petitioner, above named, is directed to be released on bail in connection with Vaishali P.S.
