Let the defect(s) be removed within two weeks of the complete start of the physical Court in normal course.

The petitioner, who is in custody since 06.05.2020
seeks regular bail in connection with Sadar Hajipur, Vaishali, P.S. Case No. 269 of 2020, for the offence punishable under Sections 304(b), 328 and 120(b) of Indian Penal Code, pending in the Court of learned A.C.J.M-I, Hajipur at Vaishali.

The F.I.R. has been lodged against the petitioner alleging that he used to torture and finally committed murder of his wife. The deceased was blessed with two children from the wedlock have supported the allegation made in the F.I.R. against the petitioner. The petitioner used to torture the deceased and used to demand money for consuming liquor and building house. The case was registered under Section 304(b) of the I.P.C. The Chargesheet has been submitted under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned A.P.P. for the State has opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner, he referred several paragraphs of the case diary from which it has surfaced that the petitioner will become dangerous for his two children, if he is enlarged on bail.

Considering the serious offence committed by the petitioner of murdering his wife supported by his two children, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. Accordingly, the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner, above named, is rejected.
