ORAL ORDER

2 12-09-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

Let the defect(s), if any, be removed within a period of four weeks.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case
registered for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 and 120(B) of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is a person with clean antecedent.

The informant alleges that petitioner secured appointment as a Panchayat Teacher based on forged and fabricated mark-sheet.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case as he was not given an opportunity before taking a decision to terminate from the service. He, thus, submits that had an opportunity been given to the petitioner he would have been in a position to explain his case.

Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Brahmpur (Nainijore) P.S. Case No. 594 of 2021, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Cr.P.C.

Further, in the event, if the charge sheet is submitted by the police against the petitioner after investigation the present anticipatory bail order shall lose its effect.
