ORAL ORDER

2 27-01-2022 The learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to remove all the defects pointed out by the Stamp Reporter within one month.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State through video conferencing.

The petitioner apprehends her arrest for the offences alleged under Sections 302, 201 and 34 of the Indian

Penal Code, registered in connection with Vaishali (Belsar)

P.S.Case No.224 of 2020.

The informant Upendra Singh has lodged this case mentioning therein that the marriage of his daughter was solemnized with co-accused Shekhar Kumar in the year 2013.

He used to torture the daughter of the informant. On 10.07.2020, the informant's wife received information on telephone that her daughter has been murdered. The dead-body of her daughter was recovered which was buried 500 metre away from the house. In the last portion of the FIR, it has been mentioned that the FIR named accused persons have committed the murder of the daughter of the informant.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that in the entire FIR there is no allegation of dowry demand nor there is any allegation inflicting cruelty to the deceased against petitioner, who is the married nanad of the deceased. That allegation is only against the husband Shekhar Kumar who is in custody. He has also submitted that co-accused Chhotu Kumar has been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Cr.Misc. No. 10399 of 2021.

Considering the above facts and circumstances, let the petitioner above-named, in the event of her arrest or surrender within four weeks from the date of communication of this order, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Vaishali at Hajipur Patna in connection with Vaishali (Belsar) P.S. Case No.224 of 2020, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr. P.C.

Office shall ensure that all defects are removed by the petitioner within the stipulated time as provided hereinabove, failing which the matter shall be brought to the notice of this Court.
