ORAL ORDER

2 13-07-2022 Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to remove defect (s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of four weeks on resumption of physical mode.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned

APP for the State.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under section 461 and 379 of the Indian Penal Code and further was added section 411 of the

I.P.C.

As per the prosecution case, shop of the informant was found open and gold and silver jewellery items were found missing from the said shop. It is further alleged that the bills of payments of four cheques were stolen by the unknown theft.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. The stolen articles has also been recovered from the conscious possession of the informant's house. The name of the petitioner sprung up on the confessional statement of co-accused Sagar Hari. The petitioner is also involved in three other criminal cases which are of similar nature. The petitioner is in custody since 23.10.2019.

Learned A.P.P. for the State has opposed the bail petition of the petitioner.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the petitioner above-named, is directed to be enlarged on bail on his furnishing bail-bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned J.M. 1st, Bhagalpur in connection with Kotwali (Barari) P.S. Case No. 953 of 2019, with following conditions :-

1. One of the bailors must be a close relative of the petitioner.

2. The petitioner is directed to remain physically present before the learned Court below on each and every date, failing which on two consecutive dates without reasonable cause, the bail bond of the petitioner will liable to be cancelled.

3. If the petitioner is found involved in any other criminal case in future, his bail bond will liable to be cancelled.

The application stands allowed.
