ORAL ORDER

2 19-07-2022 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned
APP for the State.

The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioners apprehending their arrest in connection with Chautham P.S. Case no. 123 of 2019 instituted for the offence punishable under Sections 120B, 406, 467, 468, 471, 472 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The FIR has been lodged by the Branch Manager of Bajaj Allianz Life Insurance Company Limited, in which it is alleged that one Deo Nandan Kumar had purchased a life insurance policy for a sum of Rs. 10,37,000/-. It is alleged that one Rakesh Kumar who was brother of the assured person has been made nominee under the insurance policy. Soon after commencement of the policy, a death intimation of the life assured was sent to the Company, however, in course of the inquiry into the genuineness of the death claim, it was found that there was a conspiracy to play a fraud upon the Insurance Company and hence the death claim was rejected.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. Petitioners have no concern with the claim of the nominee. Petitioner is neither the proposer nor introducer nor the identified policy holder. No case is made out against the petitioner.

Learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer of Bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and in the facts and circumstances of the case as stated above, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners on bail. The petitioners are directed to surrender in the Court below within a period of four weeks from today and in the event of their arrest or surrender in connection with Chautham P.S. Case no. 123 of 2019, they will be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate,

1st Class, Khagaria subject to the conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
