ORAL ORDER

4 13-07-2022 The petitioners are seeking review of an order dated 22.01.2020 passed in Civil Revision No. 125 of 2018. The order under review reads thus: -

“This revision application has been filed against an order dated 13.11.2009 passed by the Chairman, Bihar Waqf Tribunal, Patna.

The application is apparently time barred. No limitation has been filed.

This application is accordingly dismissed as incompetent.”

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners does not dispute the fact that the revision application was time barred. He also does not dispute the fact that no application seeking condonation of delay was filed. He, however, submits that against the order dated 13.11.2009 passed by the Chairman, Bihar Waqf Tribunal, Patna, the petitioners had filed a writ petition giving rise to C.W.J.C. No. 13860 of 2010, which was disposed of on 10.05.2018.

Be that as it may, in my view, no ground is made out for review of the order dated 21.01.2020 passed in the said Civil Revision No. 123 of 2018, which was incompetent because of the delay and was rightly dismissed considering the fact that no limitation petition was filed.

This civil review application, in my opinion, is misconceived and is accordingly dismissed.
