ORAL ORDER

4 28-09-2022 These two applications have been filed seeking modification of the order by which this Court had granted bail to the petitioner.

This Court has earlier granted bail to the petitioner on the basis of the records which were placed before the Court. If there is anything more than that, the petitioner would be required to file a fresh bail application with complete information.

The modification applications are, thus, dismissed with liberty to the petitioner to file fresh application.
