CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

4 09-03-2022 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 20(b)(ii)(c), and 22(c) of the NDPS Act.

As per the prosecution case, 48.5 kgs of ganja was recovered from the house of the petitioner and the petitioner was taken into custody.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case. No incriminating article has been recovered from his possession or his house. He is in custody since 1.9.2020 and charge has been framed in the case. He undertakes to cooperate in the trial

The application for bail is opposed by learned APP for the State who submits that the quantity of ganja recovered from the house of the petitioner is more than the commercial quantity.

Once he is released on bail, he will not cooperate in the trial.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the quantity of 48.5 kgs of ganja having been recovered from the house of the petitioner, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.

Learned trial court is directed to expedite the trial and to conclude the same at the earliest.
