ORAL ORDER

2 20-12-2022

1. No one appear for the petitioner.

2. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the petitioner has come up with the case that he was having Roll No. 7754 and he scored 12 marks, while candidates having 10 marks was appointed.

3. However, from scrutiny, it has been found that Roll No. 7754 belongs to one Om Prakash and not to the petitioner and, therefore, entire basis of the writ petition is found to be false and based on mis-conception.

4. Considering the above, this Court is satisfied that no relief can be granted to the petitioner as the roll number mention is different and belongs to someone else.

5. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.
