ORAL ORDER

The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that they are innocent and have falsely been implicated these cases. There is no specific allegation on the petitioners to assault the deceased, rather the allegation is general and omnibus.

The learned counsel for the petitioner (Ramsakal Sah) has submitted that he is 70 years old. It has also been submitted that co-accused Rohit Kumar has been granted anticipatory bail in Cr.Misc. No. 9846 of 2021.

On the other hand, the learned counsel for the informant has vehemently opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail and submitted that FIR itself shows that the members of the prosecution side have been badly assaulted at the hands of the petitioners merely because they had informed the police about the indulgence of the petitioners in their business of illicit liquor. Due to assault of the petitioners and other accused persons one innocent namely Jai Narayan Sah breathed his last .He has submitted further that the trial is going on and due to absconding of the petitioners the investigations against them are still going on.

In my view, these are not fit cases for anticipatory bail. As such, prayer for anticipatory bail on behalf of the petitioners is rejected.

If the petitioner surrender before the court below and seek regular bail, that shall be disposed of on its own merit, without being prejudiced by this order.

Office shall ensure that all defects are removed by the petitioners within the stipulated time as provided hereinabove, failing which the matter shall be brought to the notice of this Court.

(Nawneet Kumar Pandey, J)
