Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

2. By filing the present writ application, the petitioner seeks a direction upon the respondent-authorities to adjust the

4. At this juncture, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that for ventilating his grievance, if he may be permitted to file a representation before the concerned authorities, he would be satisfied.

5. Learned counsel for the State has no objection.

6. In view of the submissions made on behalf of learned counsel for the petitioner, the writ petition is disposed of with the aforesaid liberty.

7. If the petitioner would file a representation before the concerned authorities, the same would be considered and disposed of by passing a speaking and reasoned order expeditiously.
