ORAL ORDER

2      02-08-2022      Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to remove defect (s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of four weeks on resumption of physical mode.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered u/s 302 read with 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, the petitioner is alleged to have assaulted with bamboo on the head of the informant's father, due to which his father succumbed to the injuries.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has falsely been implicated in this case due to dirty village politics. Nothing has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. The petitioner has clean antecedent as stated at para 3 of the bail petition. There is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioner. There was a delay of two days in lodging the F.I.R. The petitioner is in custody since 14.09.2021.

Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner by submitting that there is specific allegations against the petitioner to cause the death of the informant's father.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances as well as the period of custody, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner above named, on bail.

Learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial and conclude the same preferably within nine months.

The petitioner is at liberty to renew his prayer for bail if the trial will not conclude within the aforesaid period.

The application is rejected.
