ORAL ORDER

2 24-08-2022 Heard the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to remove the defects within four weeks of resumption of normal court proceedings. In the eventuality of non-removal of defects within stipulated period, office will place the matter before the Bench.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under section 420 of Indian Penal Code.

Allegedly, during the course of verification of original documents of Teacher Eligibility Test (TET) it appeared that the petitioner had submitted TET certificate of July 2019 at the time of application, whereas during counseling he produced original certificate of December 2019, which appeared to be a case of forgery. The petitioner managed to escape due to over crowding and his original certificate could not be seized.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is quite innocent and has committed no offence. He has been falsely implicated in this case due to some error of record. No such occurrence, in the manner as alleged, has ever taken place. The allegation leveled against the petitioner is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. No harm or loss was caused to anyone nor anyone was induced by the petitioner. The petitioner had passed Central Teacher Eligibility Test (CTET) in December 2019 and the same can be verified by digital mode from the Central Board of Secondary Education. Petitioner has one criminal antecedent, as also mentioned in para-3 of the bail application.

Learned APP for the State opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, since there is no specific overt act against the petitioner, let the above named petitioner be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court

below where the case is pending/Successor Court in Sheohar
P.S. Case No.219 of 2021, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
