CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 17-02-2022 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

The petitioner, who is the husband of the deceased seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in connection with Araria Mahila P.S. Case No. 112/2020 instituted for the offences under Sections 498(A)/ 341/ 504/ 307/ 304(B)/

302/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation in the First Information Report is that because of the deceased having given birth to a girl child, she was subjected to torture and ultimately she was killed by putting her on fire.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the accusation is absolutely false. The F.I.R. in the first part disclosed that the relationship between the spouses was cordial. The deceased perhaps destroyed her own life. She was afforded all possible medical treatment but unfortunately, she succumbed to her burn injuries. It has also been submitted that because of the death of the deceased, the family ties got snapped and thereafter this false case, on the instigation of somebody else, has been filed by the informant.

Be that as it may, considering the nature of accusation in the subject F.I.R. and the fact that the death of the deceased took place within one year of her marriage, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

The prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is rejected.

Should the petitioner surrender before the court below and seek bail, all the above-noted grounds shall be taken into account and an order shall be passed without being prejudiced by the fact that the present petition on his behalf has not bee entertained.

(Ashutosh Kumar, J)
