CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

3 11-02-2022 Heard learned counsel for the parties through video conferencing.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 302 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, it is stated by the informant Chaukidar that he received information about the petitioner having assaulted his full brother. On reaching the place of occurrence he found the brother of the petitioner in an injured condition. He was taken to the hospital where he died in course of treatment.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case. There are no eye witness to the occurrence. The petitioner has no motive to commit the alleged crime. The petitioner is in custody since 24.12.2020 and has no criminal antecedent.

The application for bail is opposed by learned APP for the State who submits that the cause of the occurrence was supported by the witnesses whose statement was recorded in course of investigation. The petitioner absconded for more than three years.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the facts of the case and the material that has transpired in course of investigation, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.

Learned trial court is directed to expedite the trial.
