CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 15-11-2022 Heard Mr. Ramendra Kumar Bharti learned counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Anil Kumar singh, learned counsel for the respondent no.8, and Mr. Madan Prasad Singh No.2, (AC to AG) for the State.

At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during the pendency of the writ application, the entire terminal dues of the erstwhile employee has been restored upon the respondent no.8 and the son of the deceased employee has also been granted compassionate appointment and as such the matter has become infructuous.

On the other hand, referring to the averments made in the counter affidavit, learned counsel for the respondent no.8, submits that the claim of the petitioner was considered, and the same has been rejected.

Be that as it may, it appears that the present writ application has become infructuous.

Accordingly, the present writ application stands dismissed as infructuous.

(Harish Kumar, J)
