CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

4 07-02-2022 Heard learned counsel for the parties through video conferencing.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 307, 452, 504, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code and section 27 of the Arms Act.

As per the prosecution case, the seven named accused persons including the petitioner herein entered the house of the informant and as a result of firing by Jhanjhi Yadav and Dharmendra Yadav, the informant sustained gun shot injury.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case.
Accepting the allegations levelled in the F.I.R., at best he can be said to be a member of the mob. No overt act has been alleged against him. He is in custody since 27.2.2021 and chargesheet has been submitted in the case.

The application for bail is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State who submits that the petitioner is named in the F.I.R. He along with the other named accused persons entered the house of the informant and as a result of indiscriminate firing, the informant sustained gun shot injuries.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case including the petitioner being named in the F.I.R. and having participated in the occurrence wherein the informant sustained two gun shot injuries and the fact being confirmed from the injury report, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.

Learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial.
