CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 14-11-2022

Heard Mr. Vijoy Nandan Sahay, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners and the learned counsel for the Bihar State Road Transport Corporation (hereinafter referred to as 'the BSRTC').

2. The present application has been filed seeking directions upon the respondents to make payment of statutory Contributory Provident Fund deducted/accumulated from the salary of the petitioners and deposited in the Provident Fund account of the respondents, but the same has not been paid to them with compound interest at the statutory rate, applicable on Contributory Provident Fund.

3. Shorn of unnecessary details, learned counsel for the petitioners drawn the attention of this Court towards the averments made in paragraph no. 16 of the writ application, as also the different orders of learned co-ordinate Benches of this Court passed in identical matter, whereby, the respondent authorities have been directed to pay their due Provident Fund and also the Compound Interest on delayed refund of accumulated CPF till the date of final payment.

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the BSRTC does not confront the factual legal position.

5. In view of the short submissions made on behalf of the parties, the present application is disposed of with a direction to the petitioners to file their respective representation before the Administrator, Bihar State Road Transport Corporation (BSRTC), along with all the particulars relating to their appointments, posting and retirement. In case, such representation is filed, the respondent no. 2 shall consider the claim of the petitioners and pass reasoned and speaking order taking into consideration, the orders of this Court passed in CWJC No. 16033 of 2016 and CWJC No. 23565 of 2019 disposed of on 08.01.2018 and 24.06.2020 respectively and in case the claim of the petitioners find favor and if it is found that any amount is payable to the petitioners the same shall be paid to the petitioners alongwith admissible statutory interest within a period of four months from the date of filing of such representation.

6. Accordingly, the present writ application is disposed of with the aforesaid observations and directions.
