ORAL ORDER

2 21-04-2022 Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to remove defect(s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of four weeks from today.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

This petition has been filed for quashing the order dated 20.04.2012 passed by the learned ACJM, Danapur, taking cognizance in connection with Maner P.S. Case No. 210/2011 for the offence under Section 304 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner has challenged the order of cognizance on various grounds. The police after investigation has found the case true against the petitioner and, therefore, cognizance has been taken by the learned Magistrate after appreciating the materials available on record.

Considering the above, this Court cannot replace the opinion of the learned Magistrate. Accordingly, this petition stands dismissed.
