CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
and
HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA KUMAR
ORAL JUDGMENT
(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR)

Date : 13-10-2022

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The license of the petitioner has been cancelled,

which order has been affirmed by the appellate authority.

The contention raised on behalf of the petitioner is that in the show-cause notice served upon him, the contemplated course of action has not been intimated.

On perusal of the notice, we find that it has been indicated that in case of the explanation offered by the petitioner not being found to be satisfactory, further action shall be taken.

This is good enough indication for the notice to be valid as the only course contemplated in such a situation is cancellation of license

Be that as it may, considering the fact that the petitioner has not exhausted his remedy of revision, we are not inclined to entertain this petition. Thus, without commenting on the contents of the orders which have been impugned in the present petition, we dismiss this petition with the liberty to the petitioner to approach the revisional authority in case so deemed appropriate.

In case such a revision petition is filed, that shall be entertained by the revisional authority and after affording reasonable opportunity to the petitioner, a final reasoned order shall be passed.

The petition stands dismissed with the aforenoted observation.
