CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN
ORAL ORDER

2 13-09-2022 Let the defect(s), if any, be removed within two weeks from today.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Sikta P.S. Case No. 02 of 2022, lodged under Sections 420, 406, 465, 467, 468, 471 and 120B of Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, the allegation against the petitioner in this case is that he has played the role of witness of a registered sale deed which was executed by the vendor to vendee.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in the entire F.I.R., there is no specific allegation against the present petitioner. The general and omnibus allegation has been made against all the accused persons including the petitioner. The role of petitioner is a witness of the vendor/vendee, who are in existence. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody since 11.03.2022, charge sheet has already been filed in this case having one criminal antecedent, in which he is on bail.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer for bail.

Learned counsel for the informant vehemently opposes the prayer for bail and submits that on the petitioner's instance the entire conspiracy has been created which resulted into fraud/ breach of trust with the informant.

In the present facts and circumstances of this case and the submissions made above, let the petitioner above named, be granted bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned J.M. 1st, Class, Bettiah, West Champaran in connection with Sikta P.S. Case No. 02 of 2022, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 437(3) of Cr.P.C.

With this observation, the bail application stands allowed.
